

ALOHA from Burma (Myanmar)

July 4, 2003

“We love BARS, We love our teachers,” sang BARS II students. Do they really mean it? Look at the following picture. I think they are singing from their hearts. Their smiles, faces, and especially “mouths” proved it. Saya Bob Winter even liked the lyrics so much.

The BARS Music Competition was very nice. Students were so talented. All ten songs were so good, and were original as well. I was excited about their talents in music. It was also fun for students amidst the stresses of being students, having to cope with Saya Bob’s English classes, and Saya Nixon’s computer class midterms.

The judges, Sayama Pe Pa Leh, Saya Thomas and Saya Aung Doo’s help was much appreciated. They have inspired students with their guidance in music.

Students also had a lot of fun thanks to the Social Committee, Music Subcommittee, the Dean’s office and MIT. Look at their smiling faces enjoying the moment. My appreciation goes to all the people who put this music competition together.

Now that we are in the middle of the semester, I am getting bored with my classes since I am a little bit overloaded. I have been teaching three classes of my own and co-teaching three classes of Neil’s. But I am glad to know that we are doing our best to give education to the young here in Burma (Myanmar.)

May God bless you all!
Love in Christ, Lwin Moe
